

PETITION TO CORRECT A BIRTH CERTIFICATE

This packet contains forms and information on:
How to Correct a Birth Certificate

It is advisable to have an attorney when filing legal papers to be sure that your rights are protected and that all the procedures are correctly followed. Courthouse personnel are prohibited by state law O.C.G.A. § 15-19-51 from giving legal advice. Different situations may require special procedures and courthouse personnel cannot advise you on how to proceed or what forms may be necessary in specific situations.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PETITION TO CORRECT A BIRTH CERTIFICATE

BASIC STEPS OF THIS PROCESS

- Step 1: Contact the Vital Records office to make the correction without a Court Order. If unable to make correction, proceed to Step 2.
- Step 2: Fill out the Petition to Correct Birth Certificate, Verification, Acknowledgement (if applicable), and Affidavit (optional). Sign the forms in front of a Notary Public where necessary.
- Step 3: Fill out Summons.
- Step 4: Fill out the Sheriff's Entry of Service. Arrange for the Sheriff to serve the State Registrar at the Office of Vital Records and the Commissioner of the Georgia Department of Human Resources.

Additionally, if you are filing this petition on behalf of a minor child, you will need to serve the parent(s) or guardian(s) of the minor child unless they have signed an acknowledgment of service.

- Step 5: Put the documents in order.
- Step 6: File the original documents with the Clerk of Court and pay filing fees and service fees in the Clerk's Office.
- Step 7: Wait the required time, then schedule a final hearing using a Rule Nisi form.
- Step 8: Come to the Court on the date and time indicated on the Rule Nisi form. Bring a copy of the Final Order Form
- Step 9: File the Final Order and get a certified copy of it.
- Step 10: Take the certified copy of the Final Order to the Vital Records Office and ask them to change birth certificate(s).

FIRST, HERE IS WHAT THIS PETITION DOES NOT DO:

- The legal procedure of correcting a birth certificate does not change the legal status of the child or the father in any way. This petition is meant to assist individuals to correct minor errors, such as spelling mistakes or a wrong birth date or state of birth attributed to a parent on their child's birth certificate.
 - If you are the father of a child born out of wedlock, and you want to become the legal father, you must use a different procedure called "Legitimation." You may change the child's name in the Legitimation action, and you can also have your name added as the child's father on the birth certificate in the same case.
 - If you are a mother or father who wants to have a court decide who is the child's father, or if you want to remove the name of the father listed on the birth certificate you must file a Paternity action.
- Correcting a birth certificate is not the same as asking for a birth certificate if you have never had a birth certificate issued in your name. If your birth was never registered and you were born in Georgia, you will have to file a Petition for a Delayed Certificate of Birth.
- If you, or the minor child whose certificate you are trying to correct, were not born in Georgia, you will not be able to use these forms.

ALSO, YOU MAY BE ABLE TO CORRECT THE BIRTH RECORD WITHOUT A COURT ORDER:

- If you are the natural parents of a child born out of wedlock in Georgia, and you have now married each other and want to change the child's birth certificate to show the father and change the child's name, you do not have to file a court action. Instead, you may file a simple form with the Georgia Department of Vital Records. The form is called Application for an Amended Certificate of Birth by Legitimation (Form #3929), and is available from the Vital Records office.
- If you are the natural parents of a child born out of wedlock in Georgia, and you both want the name of the father added on the birth certificate, you may not need a court order. Instead, you may be able to add the father's name by completing a Paternity Acknowledgment at the hospital where the child is born, or later, at either the State Office of Vital Records in Atlanta or The Vital Records Office in the county where the child was born.

The Paternity Acknowledgment can be completed if both the mother and father agree, and if the mother was not married at the time of conception, birth, or any time in between. (The father should also register with the Putative Father Registry. You can get the registration form from the county Vital Records Office).

A Paternity Acknowledgment cannot be completed if the mother was married to another person when the child was born or conceived. In these situations, you must file a paternity action in court. You should consult an attorney if you need to file a paternity action.

- You should always ask the Georgia Department of Vital Records to amend the birth certificate administratively before you file a court action to get it corrected. See Step One below for details about how to do this.
- Many minor errors on birth certificates may be amended without a Court Order. Therefore, you should not file a court action until the Department of Vital Records has notified you that they will not amend the certificate without a Court Order.

WHAT IS THE LAW ABOUT AMENDING A BIRTH CERTIFICATE?

- Court cases that are about correcting a birth certificate are covered by Official Code of Georgia Sections 31-10-9 through 31-10-31. Additional procedures are set out in the Rules and Regulations of the State of Georgia, Sections 290-1-3-.10 through 290-1-3.40. Georgia courts only have authority to order corrections for Georgia birth records. So, if you were born in another state or country, you cannot use this packet to correct your birth certificate.
- Petitioning a Court to correct an error on a birth certificate is not the same as asking that you be allowed to legally change your name. If you follow the procedure to legally change your name, that can include changing the name on the birth certificate (if you were born in Georgia). Other court cases can also include name changes as part of the case. These include legitimations, paternity actions and divorces. Each of these actions has its own part of the Official Code of Georgia, and is not included in this packet of forms.

DETAILED, STEP-BY-STEP INSTRUCTIONS

Step 1: Contact the Vital Records office to make the correction without a Court Order.

- Before you even start working on the forms, you must ask the Vital Records office to make the correction without a Court Order. To do this, get a certified copy of the birth certificate from the Georgia Vital Records office. You will have to pay $25.00 for each certified copy you get.
- You can request a certified copy of the birth certificate by visiting: www.dph.georgia.gov/birth-records.
- Next, circle all the changes you wish to make, and submit a written request asking for further instructions or procedures.
- Write a letter to Georgia Vital Records requesting the changes you wish to make. You will have to enclose an additional $10.00 money order or certified check payable to "Vital Records" before they will make the changes. Requests to correct the birth certificate should be mailed to Legal Unit, Vital Records, 1680 Phoenix Blvd. Suite, 100, Atlanta, Georgia 30349.
 - Include your name and address at the top of your letter.
 - State whether you are trying to fix your own or your child's birth certificate.
 - Look at the top right corner of the birth certificate to find the State File No. If it is legible, write that File number on the blank provided.
 - Finally, provide a number and address where they can contact you back and sign the letter.
- Remember to keep a copy for your records before you mail it. Also, you should keep any documentation you receive back from them and take that to Court with you.
- If the Vital Records office refuses to make the correction without a Court Order, then you should continue to Step 2.

 - Obtain one Sheriff’s Entry of Service for the Commissioner of the Georgia Department of Human Resources.

Step 5: Putting the Documents in Order

- Put the documents in the following order:
 1. Petition
 2. Copy of the original birth certificate
 3. Verification
 4. Acknowledgement (if applicable)
 5. Affidavit (optional)
 6. Summons
- Make four (4) copies of all of the documents in the package.
- Attach a Sheriff’s Entry of Service to three copies.

Step 6: Filing

- Take the document package to the Cherokee County Superior Court Clerk’s Office to file. Have the clerk fill in the case number. Make sure this information is on all copies of your documents. Have the clerk stamp your copies. Keep a copy of the document package for your records. You may be required to pay a filing fee.

- After the Fulton Sheriff's Department completes service, they will send you back one white and yellow copy showing that they served the Department of Human Resources and State Registrar of the Department of Vital Records.
 - When you receive these back, you must file them with the Cherokee Superior Court Clerk's office, which they will then give the yellow copies back to you.
 - Note: If a parent or guardian also lives outside of Cherokee, or you do not know where they live, you will need to consult with an attorney, to determine whether the case can be brought in Cherokee County and how to proceed.

Step 7: Wait the Required Time and Prepare Forms for Final Hearing

- You can ask the Clerk of Court to schedule a final hearing after one of these has happened:
 - You have received a response back from the Department of Vital Records saying they will not oppose your Petition; or
 - Thirty (30) days or more have passed with no response from the Department (if for any reason the Department is opposing your Petition, you should consult with an attorney).

 - The remaining information on this document will be filled in by the Judge when you take the papers to the final hearing.

Step 8: Attend the Final Hearing

- Come to court on the hearing date and time that is indicated on the Rule Nisi form. You should go to the courtroom that is indicated on this document, and let the case manager know that you are there. Then, wait for your case to be called by the Judge.
- Bring all of your paperwork with you including your copy of the document package stamped by the Clerk of Court.
- You will also need to bring the Final Order Correcting the Birth Certificate. Present it to the Judge when your case is called.

Step 9: File the Final Order and Get a Certified Copy

- Take the signed Final Order after your hearing to the Clerk of Court to file. Request a certified copy of the Final Order. You will be charged for a certified copy. Check with the Clerk of Court for a fee schedule.

Step 10: Change Birth Certificate

- You can now return to the Department of Vital Records to request a corrected birth certificate.
 - When you go to the Department of Vital Records, (1) bring with you a certified copy of the Final Order, (2) copy of the current birth certificate to be changed, and (3) a money order made out to “Vital Records Services” for $10.00 which is the current fee required to amend a birth certificate after you have received a Court Order.

Because the parents were married before the child's birth and continue to be married, this child is automatically presumed to be a child of the marriage and, but for the error on the part of the hospital, the child would have the father's surname and his name would be listed on the birth certificate. See Affidavit of _____.
