

LEGITIMATION

This packet contains forms and information on:

How to Legitimate a Child

Note: The forms and instructions in this packet are to be used by the father of a child born out of wedlock to legitimate the child. They cannot be used by the mother or any person other than the father.

It is advisable to have an attorney when filing legal papers to be sure that your rights are protected and that all the procedures are correctly followed. Courthouse personnel are prohibited by state law O.C.G.A. § 15-19-51 from giving legal advice. Different situations may require special procedures and courthouse personnel cannot advise you on how to proceed or what forms may be necessary in specific situations.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT LEGITIMATION

WHAT IS A “LEGITIMATION”?

Legitimation is a legal action that is the only way, other than by marrying the mother of a child, that the father of a child born in the State of Georgia may establish legal rights to his child.

WHO MAY FILE FOR LEGITIMATION?

Only the father of a child may file a Petition seeking to legitimate his child.

WHAT IS THE LEGAL EFFECT OF A LEGITIMATION?

An Order of Legitimation creates a father and child relationship legally between the Petitioner and his child. An Order of Legitimation establishes that the child may inherit from this legal father and vice versa. An Order of Legitimation allows the legal father to be listed on the child’s birth certificate as such. An Order of Legitimation is the only way that the father of a child born out of wedlock can be recognized as the legal father of the child, and therefore can petition for custody and/or visitation with his child.

If custody is an issue, you can file for legitimation and custody in the same petition.

Note: The exception to this rule is if the mother is deceased, there is no other legal parent or guardian, or the mother consents to custody.

If you are already listed on the child’s birth certificate as the father, but you and the child’s mother were not married to each other, you must file a Petition with the Court to legitimate your child.

WHERE SHOULD THE PETITION BE FILED?

The Petition for Legitimation may be filed in the child’s county of residence, or if there is an adoption pending, in the county where the adoption was filed. If custody or visitation is desired, you may petition the Court for custody and/or visitation in the same petition.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST TO FILE FOR LEGITIMATION?

There are basic filing fees for petitions that are scheduled by the Cherokee County Superior Court Clerk’s Office. Therefore, inquiries regarding the cost to file for legitimation should be addressed to that office at 678-493-6511.

If the mother has not signed a consent and/or waiver of jurisdiction form, she will need to be served with the Petition by the sheriff. There is a fee for each address to which the sheriff has to go, if you are in the State of Georgia. If you are out of the state, and want the sheriff to serve the mother, you must check with the respective jurisdiction to determine the fees for service. “Service” is an official way to give notice to the mother, and other people involved with your case, that you have filed your case and that they have the opportunity to then file a response with the Court.

If the mother has left the child with you, and you do not know her address, and you have tried but cannot find her, then you will have to serve her with the Petition by publication. This means that the Petition is written up and then published in the official county newspaper for the county in which you knew she last lived. There will be a publication fee. The Court will also need to enter an order allowing service by publication before this process starts.

If the mother was married to someone else when your child was born, or she has listed someone else on your child’s birth certificate as the father of the child, you will also have to pay a fee (if you are in the State of Georgia) or fee (if you are out of state) to have the sheriff serve that person with a copy of the Petition. If you don’t know where that person lives, he will also have to be served by publication.

WILL THE COURT REQUIRE A DNA TEST?

Yes, even if the parties are in agreement about Paternity.

WHAT CAN I DO IF I DON'T HAVE THE MONEY TO PAY FEES?

If you do not have the money to pay your filing fees and sheriff's fees, then you may ask the Court to allow you to file free of charge. In order to do so, you must complete a Poverty Affidavit.

You must make a written statement to the Court about your monthly income and monthly expenses, and why it would be a hardship for you to have to pay the filing fees. The Court will then let you know by a written order that you may file your case without having to pay. The county newspaper will not usually waive their fees so you will still have to pay for publication if it is necessary.

HOW LONG WILL ALL OF THIS TAKE?

The length of time depends on the facts of your case. There are several options for what can happen with your case:

- If custody is not an issue, and there is no other father listed on the birth certificate, then an Order for Legitimation can be heard by a judge on the same day that you file it, and you may get your Order for Legitimation signed on the same day.
- If the mother or another father listed on the birth certificate must be served by publication, then the hearing cannot take place until after the publication is finished (60 days).
- If the mother or another father must be served by the sheriff with the Petition to Legitimate, then the case will be placed on a judge's calendar by his/her case manager after you file a rule nisi.

Note: The exceptions to this rule are if the mother is deceased and there is no other legal parent or guardian, or if the mother consents to custody. It is recommended that you seek the advice of an attorney before you proceed.

ORDER

The above Petition having come before this Court, it is considered, ordered, and adjudged that:

1. Legitimacy

The children named in the Petition, to wit:

Child's Name	Date of Birth

be declared the legitimate children of the Petitioner, _____, and capable of inheriting from him.

The Department of Vital Statistics is hereby ordered and directed to amend and reissue the birth certificate of each child listed above to indicate the Petitioner, _____, is the father of said child.

The Department of Vital Statistics is hereby ordered and directed to remove the name of _____ from the birth certificate of each child, and replace it with the name of the Petitioner, _____.

The surname of each child is hereby changed to _____. The Department of Vital Statistics is hereby ordered and directed to amend and reissue the birth certificate of each child listed above to reflect the change of the children's name to: _____.

The Agreement entered into by the parties and filed with this Court on _____, 20____ is hereby attached and adopted by the Court. Each party is ORDERED to abide by the terms of the Agreement.

2. Custody and Visitation

Respondent having consented to the consideration of the issue of visitation in this action, visitation with the children is hereby granted to the Petitioner/Respondent as follows: _____

Respondent having consented to the consideration of the issue of custody in this action, custody of the children is hereby ordered as follows: _____

The mother, _____, of the minor children is deceased. The Petitioner is hereby awarded legal and physical custody of the minor children.

3. Child Support

Application of Child Support Guidelines – The statutory requirements of O.C.G.A. § 19-6-15 have been applied in reaching the amount of child support provided under the Order in this action. The specifics are as follows:

- (1) Gross Income – The Petitioner’s gross monthly income (before taxes) is $ _____; the Respondent’s gross monthly income (before taxes) is $ _____.
- (2) Child – The number of children for whom support is being provided under this Order is _____. Their names and dates of birth are as follows:

Child’s Name	Date of Birth

- (3) Attachments – The Child Support Worksheet and Schedules are attached hereto, along with any other applicable schedules.
- (4) Child Support Amount – The _____ shall pay to the _____, for the support of the minor children in the sum of _____ dollars ($ _____) per month, beginning on _____ _____, 20_____, and continued with a payment of _____ dollars ($ _____) on the first (1st) day of each and every month thereafter until the minor children reach the age of majority, become self-supporting, marry, die, no longer reside with the _____, or are otherwise emancipated, whichever of these events shall first occur. PROVIDED HOWEVER, that if at the time the parties' children attain eighteen (18) years of age, s/he has not graduated from high school and is then enrolled full time in high school and progressing toward graduation in the normal course, then such child support shall continue until such time as said children graduate from high school, are no longer enrolled full time and progressing normally, or attain the age of twenty (20) years, whichever first occurs.

(5) Deviation from Presumptive Amount

- (a) No Deviation – It has been determined that none of the deviations allowed under O.C.G.A. § 19-6-15 applies in this case, as shown by the attached Schedule E. The amount of support in Paragraph 3 above is the Presumptive Amount of child support shown on the attached Child Support Worksheet.
- (b) Deviation – It has been determined that one or more of the deviations allowed under O.C.G.A. § 19-6-15 applies in this case, as shown by the attached Schedule E. The Presumptive Amount of Child Support that would have been required under O.C.G.A. § 19-6-15, if the deviations had not been applied, is $_____per month, as shown on the attached Child Support Worksheet. The attached Schedule E explains the reasons for the deviation, how the application of the guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate considering the relative ability of each parent to provide support, and how the best interest of the children who are subject to this child support determination is served by deviation from the Presumptive Amount of Child Support.

(6) Health, Dental, & Vision Insurance for Children

- (a) Insurance Available – The following insurance for the children involved in this action is available at a reasonable cost to the _____through that parent's employer or the PeachCare Program:
- Health (medical, mental health, and hospitalization) Dental Vision
- So long as it remains available to that parent, the _____shall maintain the types of insurance checked above for the benefit of the minor children, until each child reaches the age of eighteen (18), dies, marries, or otherwise becomes emancipated; except that if a child becomes eighteen years old while enrolled in and attending secondary school on a full-time basis, then the insurance shall be continued for the children until the children have graduated from secondary school or reaches twenty (20) years of age, whichever occurs first.
- (1) The parent who maintains the insurance shall provide the other parent with an insurance identification card or such other acceptable proof of insurance coverage and shall cooperate with the other parent in submitting claims under the policy.

(2) All money received by one of the parties for claims processed under the insurance policy shall be paid within five (5) days after the party receives the money, to the other party (if that other party paid the applicable health care service provider) or to the applicable health care provider (if the provider has not been paid by one of the parties).

- (b) Insurance Not Available – Insurance (other than Medicaid) is not available at this time to either party at a reasonable cost. If health insurance for the children later becomes available to the parent who is required to pay child support for the children, then that parent must obtain the following types of insurance, unless it is then being provided by the other parent:

Health (medical, mental health, and hospitalization) Dental Vision.

When insurance has been obtained by either party, Paragraphs 4(b)(6)(a)(1) and (2) shall apply.

- (c) Insurance Not Available – This issue is not addressed in this Final Judgment, either because the Court lacks personal jurisdiction over the Respondent, or because neither party has asked the Court to address the issue of children’s health care expenses in this action.

When insurance has been obtained by either party, Paragraphs 4(b)(6)(a)(1) and (2) shall apply.

- (7) Uninsured Health Care Expenses – The Petitioner shall pay _____% and the Respondent shall pay _____% of all expenses incurred for the children’s health care (including medical, dental, mental health, hospital, and vision care) that are not covered by insurance. The party who incurs a health care expense for the children shall provide verification of the amount to the other party. That other party shall reimburse the incurring party (or pay the health care provider directly) for the appropriate percentage of the expense, within thirty (30) days after receiving the verification of a particular health care expense.

- (8) Parenting Time Amounts – The approximate number of days of parenting time per year according to the Visitation Order is _____ days for the Petitioner and _____ for the Respondent.

- (9) Continuing Garnishment for Child Support – Whenever, in violation of the terms of the order, there shall have been a failure to make payments, so that the amount unpaid is equal to or greater than the amount payable for one month, the payments required to be made may also be collected by the process of continuing garnishment for support.

- (10) Income Deduction Order

[Check and complete only one (1) of the following choices.]

- (a) An Income Deduction Order shall be entered by the Court, under O.C.G.A. § 19-6-32, for payment of child support and alimony (if any) provided. The Income Deduction Order shall take effect:
- (1) immediately upon entry by the Court.
- (2) upon accrual of a delinquency equal to one month’s support. The Income Deduction Order may be enforced by serving a Notice of Delinquency, as provided in O.C.G.A. § 19-6-32(f).
- (b) The parties agree that an Income Deduction Order is not immediately necessary.

- (c) The Court finds that there is good cause to not require income deduction, having determined that income deduction will not serve the children's best interests and that there has been sufficient proof of timely payment of any previously ordered support.

This Order entered on _____ day of _____, 20_____.

SUMMONS

TO THE ABOVE NAMED RESPONDENT:

You are hereby summoned and required to file with the Clerk of said Court and serve upon the Petitioner, whose name and address is:

and Answer to the Complaint which is herewith served upon you, within 30 days after service of this Summons upon you, exclusive of the day of service. If you fail to do so, judgment by default will be taken against you for the relief demanded in the Complaint.

If a hearing has already been scheduled in this case, you must appear at that scheduled hearing, regardless of whether the 30 days for filing an answer has elapsed.

This _____ day of _____, 20_____.

PATTY BAKER,
Clerk of Superior Court

By _____
Clerk

To Respondent upon whom this Petition is served:

This copy of Complaint and Summons was served upon you, _____, 20_____.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING AN ANSWER AND COUNTERCLAIM IN RESPONSE TO A PETITION FOR LEGITIMATION

This packet contains forms for people responding to a Petition for Legitimation. This packet is for those who wish to file an Answer and Counterclaim for Custody and Child Support. The Respondent/ Defendant in the case (presumably you) must file an answer to the Petition you were served with. If you would also like to request relief from the Court, such as custody of the child or child support, you must also file a counterclaim.

There are two options available to you for responding to a Petition for Legitimation: (1) you can hire a lawyer who will prepare your paperwork and represent you in court, or (2) you can use the forms included in this packet and represent yourself in court. It is advisable to speak with a lawyer before filing any action with the Court; this case is no exception to that rule. There are often more issues involved in a custody case than you might realize if you fail to get legal advice. However, you may want to review the form in this packet before you talk to a lawyer, so that you will be able to make the best use of your time with the lawyer.

YOU MAY ESPECIALLY NEED AN ATTORNEY IF:

- The case is contested OR an attorney represents the opposing party.
- You or your child are victims of family violence against you by the opposing party.
- You want a custody or visitation arrangement that does not exactly fit these forms.
- You think you may have difficulty getting financial information from the opposing party.

Whether your case is contested or uncontested, you should speak with a lawyer before signing a Settlement Agreement or filing any other documents with the Court.

State law, O.C.G.A. § 15-19-51, prohibits court personnel (including staff attorneys, law clerks, calendar clerks, Clerk's Office staff, and Sheriff's Department staff) from giving legal advice or answering legal questions. This rule also applies to the Cherokee County Law Library.

A custody case can be a very complicated process. If you want a court to grant the relief that you have requested, you must complete each and every paragraph in this packet that applies to your case (but not any paragraph that does not apply to your case). When you are ready to file your Answer and Counterclaim for Custody and Child Support, you must file it with the Clerk for the Superior Court of Cherokee County and mail a copy to the opposing party (or the opposing party's attorney if he has one).

Please keep in mind that you may need to submit other forms to the Court in addition to this packet either initially or as your case progresses. At a minimum, you are required to submit a Domestic Relations Financial Affidavit, a Child Support Worksheet, and a Parenting Plan. The Cherokee County Law Library offers many of these sample forms and documents.

HEARINGS

- Temporary Hearing (Rule Nisi)

A temporary hearing is not required. However, if your case will not be ready for a final hearing (because you do not have a signed agreement and do not expect to have one soon), there may be issues that need to be decided on a temporary basis before the final hearing. In that situation, you may ask the Court to schedule a Rule Nisi temporary hearing. Temporary issues may include child support and custody and visitation with the children while the case is pending.

To schedule a Rule Nisi temporary hearing, you should complete a Rule Nisi form which has its own separate instructions. If you know you want a temporary hearing when you are getting ready to file your Answer and Counterclaim, you can copy, sort, and file the Rule Nisi form with your other paperwork. You should take the original copy of the Rule Nisi and at least one copy to the office of the judge assigned to your case. The judge's staff will schedule a date for the Rule Nisi and fill out that part of the Rule Nisi form. Sometimes the judge's staff will mail notice of the hearing date to both parties. However, to be on the safe side, you should also mail a copy of the hearing notice to the Petitioner. Then, you should file a Certificate of Service with the Superior Court Clerk's Office (showing that you mailed or delivered proper notice to the Petitioner).

- Final Hearing

The judges schedule these final hearings in different ways. You should check with the staff for the judge assigned to your case. Sometimes the judge's staff will mail notice of the hearing date to both parties. However, to be on the safe side, you should also mail a copy of the hearing notice to the Petitioner. Then, you should file a Certificate of Service with the Superior Court Clerk's Office (showing that you mailed or delivered proper notice to the Petitioner).

- Before Hearing Dates

Whether temporary or final, you must prepare your case to be presented to the Court before your hearing dates. You are your main witness. You must also gather other evidence (such as documents and photographs), and you must arrange for any other witnesses that you want to have testify at the hearing. You must also prepare the proper documents to be provided to the judge at (or soon after) the hearing.

For a temporary hearing, you may use Affidavits from witnesses, so that they do not have to testify in person. However, there are special procedures for this. See Uniform Superior Court Rule 24.5. At the final hearing, Affidavits are not proper evidence. Your witnesses (if any) must testify in person at the hearing.

Be sure to bring a Parenting Plan, Domestic Relations Financial Affidavit, and Child Support Worksheet to the hearing. The Cherokee County Law Library has materials to help you prepare for the hearings. You should also talk to a lawyer about the hearing to learn more about how to present your case.

General Civil and Domestic Relations Case Filing Instructions

1. Provide the class of court and county in which the case is being filed.
2. Provide the plaintiff's and defendant's names.
3. Provide the plaintiff's attorney's name and State Bar number. If you are representing yourself, provide your own name and check the self-represented box.
4. Provide the primary type of case by checking only one appropriate box. Cases can be either general civil or domestic relations and only one type of primary case within those categories. Check the case type that most accurately describes the primary case. If applicable, check one sub-type under the primary case type. If you are making more than one type of claim, check the case type that involves the largest amount of damages or the one you consider most important. See below for definitions of each case type.
5. Provide an answer to the four questions by checking the appropriate boxes and/or filling in the appropriate lines.

Case Type Definitions

General Civil Cases

Automobile Tort: Any tort case involving personal injury, property damage, or wrongful death resulting from alleged negligent operation of a motor vehicle.

Civil Appeal: Any case disputing the finding of a limited jurisdiction trial court, department, or administrative agency.

Contempt/Modification/Other Post-Judgment: Any case alleging failure to comply with a previously existing court order, seeking to change the terms of a previously existing court order, or any other post-judgment activity in a general civil case.

Contract: Any case involving a dispute over an agreement between two or more parties.

Garnishment: Any case where, after a monetary judgment, a third party who has money or other property belonging to the defendant is required to turn over such money or property to the court.

General Tort: Any tort case that is not defined or is not attributable to one of the other types of torts listed.

Habeas Corpus: Any case designed to review the legality of the detention or imprisonment of an individual, but not the question of his or her guilt or innocence.

Injunction/Mandamus/Other Writ: Cases involving a written court order directing a specific person to perform or refrain from performing a specific act.

Landlord/Tenant: Any case involving a landlord/tenant dispute if the landlord removed a tenant and his or her property from the premises or placed a lien on the tenant's property to repay a debt.

Medical Malpractice Tort: Any tort case that alleges misconduct or negligence by a person in the medical profession acting in a professional capacity, such as doctors, nurses, physician's assistants, dentists, etc.

Product Liability Tort: Any tort case that alleges an injury to a person was caused by the manufacturer or seller of an article due to a defect in, or the condition of, the article sold or an alleged breach of duty to provide suitable instructions to prevent injury.

Real Property: Any case involving disputes over the ownership, use, boundaries, or value of land.

Restraining Petition: Any petition for a restraining order that does not result from a domestic altercation or is not between parties in a domestic relationship.

Other General Civil: Any case that does not fit into one of the other defined case categories in which a plaintiff is requesting the enforcement or protection of a right or the redress or prevention of a wrong.

Domestic Relations Cases

Adoption: Cases involving a request for the establishment of a new and permanent parent-child relationship between persons not biologically parent and child.

Contempt: Any case alleging failure to comply with a previously existing court order. If the contempt action deals with the non-payment of child support, medical support, or alimony, also check the corresponding sub-type box.

Dissolution/Divorce/Separate Maintenance/Alimony: Any case involving the dissolution of a marriage or the establishment of alimony or separate maintenance.

Family Violence Petition: Any case in which a protective order from a family member or domestic partner is requested.

Modification: Any case seeking to change the terms of a previously existing court order. If the modification deals with custody, parenting time, or visitation, also check the corresponding sub-type box.

Paternity/Legitimation: Cases involving establishment of the identity and/or responsibilities of the father of a minor child or a determination of biological offspring.

Support – IV-D: Cases filed by the Georgia Department of Human Services to request maintenance of a minor child by a person who is required under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act of 1973 (42 USC §§ 651-669b) to provide such maintenance.

Support – Private (non-IV-D): Cases filed to request maintenance of a parent/guardian or a minor child by a person who is required by a law other than Title IV-D of the Social Security Act of 1973 (42 USC §§ 651-669b) to provide such maintenance.

Other Domestic Relations: Domestic relations cases that do not adequately fit into any of the other case types, including name changes.

Please note: This form is for statistical purposes only. It shall have no legal effect in a case. The information collected on this form is used solely for court administration purposes. This form does not supplement or replace the filing and service of pleadings or other papers as required by law or court rules. Information on this form will not be entered into evidence.

General Civil and Domestic Relations Case Disposition Form Instructions

1. Provide the class of court and county in which the case is being disposed.
2. Provide the plaintiff's and defendant's names.
3. Provide the reporting party (the individual completing the form).
4. Provide the attorneys' names and State Bar numbers. If parties represented themselves, provide their names and check the self-represented box.
5. Provide the manner of disposition by checking the appropriate box. See below for definitions.
6. Provide an answer to the three questions by checking the appropriate boxes.

Manner of Disposition Definitions

Jury Trial: Cases in which a jury is impaneled to determine the issues of fact in the case. A jury trial should be counted when the jury has been sworn, regardless of whether a verdict is reached.

Bench/Non-Jury Trial: Cases in which a judge or judicial officer is assigned to determine both the issues of fact and law in the case. A bench/non-jury trial should be counted when the first evidence is introduced, regardless of whether a judgment is reached.

Non-Trial Disposition: Cases in which the disposition does not involve either a jury trial or a bench trial.

Alternative Dispute Resolution: If a case was disposed of via a non-trial disposition and the method of disposition was alternative dispute resolution. If this box is checked, then the Non-Trial Disposition box must also be checked. Only check if the whole case was resolved via alternative dispute resolution.
